"We're Here For You" IMPACT OCONEE

November 12, 2011

Churches across South Carolina are encouraged to participate in mission action activities, events or projects to be God's hands to help, heart to care, and mouth to share the love of Christ with those in your community. Be involved in this statewide missions effort to meet needs and alleviate hurts, as you communicate by your actions to the people of your community, "We're here for you and we care, in Jesus' name!"

People don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care.

Participate in We're Here for You!

Report of WMU Training

The WMU Fall Training was held on August 22, 2011 at Earle's Grove Baptist Church. There were 140 in attendance with 27 churches represented. School supplies were collected for children. Ruby Roach, Missions Involvement Consultant, delivered these to DSS for dispersal.

The evening began in the Family Life Center with a light meal, and writing cards to the chaplains serving in Afghanistan and international students at Clemson University.

Leadership training was led by WMU consultants: Audrey Whitaker-Mission Friends; Libby Neil-GAs; Jackie Lemons-Acteens; Sharon McManamay-Women on Mission, and Pam Scott-WMU Directors. Margaret Brown taught a pastors class, and Laura Keese led the book study, "LIVE SENT: You Are A Letter".

I want to thank everyone for all the work that went into making our Fall Training event a success. I would also like to thank Earle's Grove WMU and Rev. Dyar for being such gracious hosts.

Pamela Scott
Association WMU Director

Thank You, Volunteers!

We appreciate the many hours that volunteers have given to the association answering the phone, tabbing the newsletter, stuffing envelopes, cutting messenger cards, purging files, and much more!

Faye Carroll (Bethel), Jewel Eller (Chauga), Kathy Fitzgerald (Wolf Stake), Lucy Oakley (Maranatha), Jackie Smith (Poplar Springs), Imagean Wigington (Pleasant Ridge), and Renee Wooten (Mt. Freedom).
